EDITORS LEADER :- As anything pertainng to "Oildorado" is now of interest to a large portion of community, and as I am sojourning for a brief period at this place, l have concluded to drop you a line. Though my expectations were pretty highly raised, must confess that what I here find and hear far surpasses my anticipations. This shrine of modern pilgrims is certainly a remarkably brisk and energetic place, and it does one's heart good to behold the activity and stir, so different from the general business apathy and duliness usually prevalent at this season of the year.

ALONE AND MAKES A MARCH-TWELVE THOU-BAND PACKAGES PROVISIONS CONTRACTED-ALI THE LIVERPOOL FREIGHT ENGAGED,-it is already well known that the agents of several reasty west gnown that the agents of several Eastern roads have been carrying Liverpool freights to New York, for weeks past, at a reduction of from 2c to 3½ and 5c from the Sarstoga schedule, and that the Baltimore & Ohio Rallroad had a contract, running SPRING GOODS! through the entire month of January, for several thousand tons, at a large reduction from the rates established by the five Eastern lines. These violations were reported to the Tycoons, and it was expected that the charges would have been investigated at the Washington meeting, but the matter was postponed to the New York meeting of Feb. 20th. At that meeting none of the representatives of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad were present, and it was generally supposed that Mr. Garrett did not intend to meet the charges preferred. The result was a feeling that rates would not, therefore, be maintained very long, and the fact that a contract had been made for 6,000 head of cattle, at a reduction of $7 per car, from Circleville, and reduction of $7 per car, from Circleville, and that contracts had been made in this city within a few days for box meats to New York at 2½c less than the full sales, astja-fied the New York & Eric Road that if they FREEMAN & KELLOGG wanted any of the freight from this city they would have to step in at once, The agents of the New York & Eris and Cleveland & Columbus Railroads, therefore stepped in yesterday and completely cleared the market of all the box meat and lard that was to go to Liverpool this season. They made contracts with all the beavy shippers for all their freight for the season, amounting to some ten or twelve thousand packages, at 55s all rail to New York. These contracts are not upon a sliding scale, and even though a less rate should now be offer-ed, the Erle road has all the freight at 55c. This movement of the Erie, and Cleveland and Columbus agents was not known outside of the parties interested last evening and when this paragraph mests the eyes o
